

Anna Berglowe-Lynch
Anna earned her Master's degree at Towson University and is the Coordinator for Career Services. Anna coordinates cooperative education, internship opportunities and assists students to develop job search skills.

Mary Ellen Bucha
Mary Ellen earned her Master's degree from Chapman University and she advises students who are returning to Harford Community College and students who have not yet been assigned an academic advisor.

George Budelis
George is a graduate of Harford Community College and Towson University and advises students majoring in Business, Computer and Applied Technologies. George serves as the Tennis Coach and is an adjunct instructor for Physical Education.

Bill Elliott
Bill earned his Master's degree from UMBC and is the Coordinator for Student Development. Bill teaches Career and Life Planning courses and advises students who are undecided regarding their major. Bill also advises students who are veterans and active military.

Elaine Gisriel
Elaine earned her Master's degree from Loyola University. She advises students majoring in Sociology, Psychology, History, Anthropology, Criminal Justice, Paralegal Studies, Exercise Science, Political Science, and General Studies. Elaine also is an instructor for Student Development courses.

Dena Gottschalk
Dena earned her Master's degree from George Mason University and advises students majoring in Teacher Education, General Studies, and those who are undecided regarding their major. Dena also assists students with cooperative education, internship opportunities and job search skills.

Kelvin Harrison
Kelvin earned his Master's degree from the University of Texas at Austin. Kelvin advises students in all majors who are participating in the My College Success Network program. This program is designed to empower and support African American students enrolled at Harford Community College. All students, regardless of ethnicity, are welcome to participate.

Roger Hoover
Roger earned his Master's degree from West Chester University and he advises students majoring in Nursing and Allied Health, General Studies, and students who are undecided regarding their major. Roger also is an instructor for Student Development and transitional Studies courses.

Janet Mathias
Janet is a graduate of MICA and earned a Master's degree from George Washington University. Janet is an instructor for Student Development courses and advises students majoring in Fine Art, Digital Arts, Photography, Graphic Design, Theater, Music, and Mass Communications.

Lorraine Peniston
Lorraine earned her PhD from the University New Mexico and her Master's Degrees from Keane College of New Jersey. She advises students pursuing Pre-Nursing, and those majoring in Allied Health and General Studies.

Tim Schneider
Tim earned his Master's degree from Goucher College and advises students majoring in Science, Technology, Engineering, Math and General Studies. Tim also serves as an adjunct Instructor for Health and Student Development courses.

Megan Scott
Megan is a graduate of Harford Community College and Towson University Northeast (TUNE). She advises students from all majors, students returning to Harford Community College, and those students who have not yet been assigned an advisor.

Bonnie Sulzbach
Bonnie earned her Master's degree from Towson University and is the Director for Advising, Career and Transfer Services. Bonnie manages the daily operations of the Advising, Career and Transfer Services office.

Alison Thornton
Alison earned her Master's degree from Kutztown University of Pennsylvania. Alison advises students who are undecided regarding their major, and students from all majors. Alison also advises students interested in the Reverse Transfer Program.

Karla Wynn
Karla earned her Master's degree from Loyola University in Maryland and advises students in all majors. Karla also provides career coaching services, assisting students and alumni with resume writing and job search skills.